Vuzix Reports Double Digit Revenue Growth in Q3 2022

ROCHESTER, N.Y., November 9, 2022 - Vuzix® Corporation (NASDAQ: VUZI) (“Vuzix” or the “Company”), a leading supplier of Smart Glasses and Augmented Reality (AR) technologies and products, today reported its third quarter results for the period ended September 30, 2022.

“During the third quarter, we achieved both sequential and year-over-year double-digit total revenue growth despite numerous headwinds,” said Paul Travers, President and CEO. “We made strong progress in the quarter in terms of product development, technology advancement and new business engagements. On the OEM side of our business, we are now in discussions with many new potential defense, consumer electronics and enterprise customers who are interested in our waveguide and display engine solutions. At the same time, larger deployment opportunities for our smart glasses among key enterprise customers continue to expand both in number and visibility within the warehousing and logistics, automotive, pharma and healthcare verticals. Lastly, and subsequent to the close of Q3, we are also very pleased to have completed the acquisition of Moviynt, a key part of our strategy toward becoming more of a software solutions provider in certain vertical markets.”

The following table compares condensed elements of the Company’s unaudited summarized Consolidated Statements of Operations data for the three months ended September 30, 2022 and 2021, respectively:

Third Quarter 2022 Financial Results

For the three months ended September 30, 2022, total revenues increased by 14% to $3.4 million versus $3.0 million for the comparable period in 2021. Driving the increase in total revenues were engineering services revenues related to our waveguides and display engine solutions.

There was an overall gross profit of $0.9 million or 25% of revenues for the three months ended September 30, 2022 as compared to $0.4 million or 13% for the same period in 2021. The increase was due to higher revenues from engineering services which have greater gross margins, as compared to the prior’s year’s comparable period where Vuzix had no such revenues.

Research and Development expense was essentially flat at $3.4 million for the three months ended September 30, 2022 compared to $3.4 million for the comparable 2021 period, an increase of approximately 1%.

Selling and Marketing expense was $2.0 million for the three months ended September 30, 2022, versus $1.7 million the comparable 2021 period, an increase of approximately 20%. The rise was primarily due to increases in salary and benefits expenses due to headcount increases.

General and Administrative expense for the three months ended September 30, 2022 was $4.9 million versus $5.5 million for the comparable 2021 period, a decrease of approximately 11%. The decline was primarily due to decreases in non-cash stock-based compensation and legal expenses.

The net loss for the three months ended September 30, 2022 was $9.5 million or $0.15 cents per share versus a net loss of $10.5 million or $0.17 for the same period in 2021.

The net cash operating loss after adding back non-cash items for the third quarter of 2022 was $4.9 million as compared to a loss of $5.8 million for the third quarter of 2021. As of September 30, 2022, the Company maintained cash and cash equivalents of $90.4 million and an overall working capital position of $100.8 million.

Management Outlook

“Notwithstanding the challenging economic environment globally, continued weakness in foreign exchange rates compared to the US dollar and working to properly manage customer purchasing decisions, we expect sequential growth in smart glasses products and solution sales in Q4,” said Mr. Travers.

“Our OEM business, which includes engineering services and waveguide and display engine sales, continues to gain momentum. Leveraging the investments that we have already made in our core technology and OEM platform, our OEM revenue is expected to experience growth in Q4, led by consumer OEM customers along with US and allied defense and homeland security customers,” concluded Mr. Travers.
